STATEMENT: Narrative should be written in the first person.

I have talked about my habits regarding computer use. I have admitted looking into facebook & twitter accounts that were linked to sites that contain photos of people. This has taken about 1 hr. or more of my time (per day).

This constitutes a mistake and a lack of judgment on my side and I am sorry for the judgment.

I have collected the data in my thumb drives and they have about a 1 GB of photos of people. I never posted it at the office or any EPA facility - the body fluids noticed may have been the result of [REDACTED] disinfecting my hands after going to the bathroom. No kid poem was ever seen or downloaded.
